infomojibake@gmail.com

1. All copyrights belong to Mojibake (Alessandro Di Cesare and Giulia Bergonzoni) NO rights are assigned or transferred to the end-user. Our designs are protected by intellectual property laws.
2. You may only use the content provided by us (Alessandro di Cesare and Giulia Bergonzoni) strictly for personal use. If you aim to sell some of our prints (even just one!) you can gain an official commercial license that allows you to do it safely, according to our conditions. However, you can't claim that our works is your own. Never and in any way. You always have to attribute.
3. You are not allowed to distribute or sell our images, 3D models or prints, unless you are one of our official reseller. In that case, you'll be allowed to sell our prints, according to our conditions.
4. You can cut/resize our models or edit printing supports in order to fit better your printer only, but you can't share those derivatives nor the original files in any way, never.
5. You can't edit our 3D files or use portions of them to create new models or content. You may not otherwise modify, duplicate, create derivative works of, disassemble or reverse engineer any part. The STL files may not be copied, reproduced, distributed, republished.
6. Our content is protected by copyright and intellectual property and can't be used in any form in other projects, Kickstarter or Patreon campaigns, any other crowdfunding platform, website or social media.
7. You can't make casts/molds of our models, any kind of production is prohibited.
8. You can take photos, make live streams and video with our models/prints (such as printing or painting sessions) as long as you credit us. Never use our content (3D models, pictures, prints, logo or whatever) without crediting us.
9. All copyrights belong to Mojibake (Alessandro Di Cesare and Giulia Bergonzoni), NO rights are assigned or transferred to the end-user. Our designs are protected by intellectual property laws.
10. We have no liability whatsoever for any data loss or corruption or any damaged caused to people, animals, systems, 3D printers, data storage devices, computers etc. caused by the files or printed parts. The users agrees that it has sole responsibility for protecting its data, system and health during the use of the STL files/printed parts.

If you do not accept or completely agree with these terms, please do not buy/download any kind of content we provide.

11. We have no obligation to provide support or guidance regarding the use of the STL files. We are familiar with 3D printing and each model is printed by us before being ready for sale, but we do not guarantee that our files will be optimized for every slicing software, resin, 3D printer or board game. Our brand, registered logo, images, digital content, files, 3D designs, concept arts, videos, written content, names, games, miniatures, products, packaging, software or any future content created by us are protected by copyright laws and belongs to Alessandro Di Cesare and Giulia Bergonzoni

12. In no event may you/User remove any copyright or intellectual property notice, trademark or proprietary legend from any materials. We may require our logo, trademark and names be placed on all products, packaging, digital and non digital material, promotional material.

13. If you'll violate any of these guidelines and conditions, we'll have the right to report and block you anytime without notice; it means your pledge, and so your commercial license, will be deleted. However, once you've been one of our patrons, you'll accept this Agreement and agree to always be bound by its provisions regarding our content, digital and physical models and so on, even after suspending your membership.

14. This agreement represents the entire agreement between the parties and any dispute arising from this Agreement shall be resolved through mediation. If the dispute cannot be resolved through mediation, then will be resolved through binding arbitration or civil legal litigation.

15. We proudly own an official commercial license from Printable Scenery for the commercial use of their modular OpenLOCK system printable models. We will include some OpenLOCK compatible customized models in our sets, it means you'll be able to use them with any other OpenLOCK modular buildings or models made by Printable Scenery or their other officially licensed sellers. All the previous conditions of this Agreement (you can't sell any of our models or prints unless differently stated) apply to our OpenLOCK compatible models as well, however, we DO NOT own OpenLOCK system rights, that still belong to Printable Scenery. OpenLOCK is a trademark of Printable Scenery. If you are one of our resellers, you're only allowed to sell our models and OpenLOCK building models as long as you're in the commercial tier. In any case, the end-user will always be allowed to get the 3D printed models for personal use only.

Thank you!
